

James Cupp Meeting Center

The Fort Bend County Municipal Utility District #25 Board of Directors is pleased to announce that the James Cupp Meeting Center is now available for community use. The center is conveniently located adjacent to the District's Operations building on Old Richmond Road, ten minutes from Highway 59 and the Grand Parkway, five minutes from Highway 6, close to Beltway 8, and easily accessible from downtown Houston. The lovely facility is ideally suited for:

- Business Meetings
- Seminars
- Civic Club Meetings
- Training Sessions
- Special Family Events
- Senior Citizen Groups

There is adequate room for a maximum of 60 people. The Center is handicap accessible, and there are several nearby parking areas. The Center is equipped with a podium and audio/visual aids, and arrangements can be made for the use of the projector and screen.

There is a fully equipped kitchen that is also available for use during your meeting or special event. While there are no specific rules about food service in the meeting room, guests are required to return the Center to the condition in which they found it. There is a janitorial fee included in the rental agreement.

As with any facility of this quality, there are guidelines for the operation and use of the James Cupp Meeting Center, and a copy of these and a sample rental agreement can be easily downloaded from our website, www.waterdistrict25.com, or picked up/requested from our office.

Please call 281-277-0129 for additional information and to inquire if the Center is available for your meeting or event.

James Cupp Meeting Center

The Center is named for James (Jim) Cupp, who retired after 17 years of service on the District's Board of Directors in May 2004. Jim spent many of these years as President of the Board, and remained steadfast in his commitment to achieving the District's standard of excellence and integrity in operations.
